

ORIENTATION & MOBILITY SPECIALISTS (EXPERIENCED)

- ❖ Area of work may be flexible; our office locations service within the region and in surrounding areas including Albury, Canberra, Chatswood, Coffs Harbour, Newcastle, Orange or Blacktown (please indicate your preference)
- ❖ Flexibility can be offered to candidates who may wish to rotate offices to experience working in different locations within NSW/ACT e.g. city, coastal and rural.

Guide Dogs NSW/ACT is the largest provider of Guide Dogs and mobility aids for people with impaired vision in Australia. We are a trusted brand delivering thousands of free client service programs annually.

We are currently seeking expressions of interest from experienced Orientation & Mobility Specialists for possible opportunities to join our Client Services team to provide individualised orientation and mobility programs to people with vision impairment living within a designated region.

Applicants must demonstrate:

- At least 3 years post graduate experience in orientation and mobility;
- Completion of a relevant tertiary degree and/or postgraduate degree (Master of Special Education or equivalent) would be highly regarded;
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills including the ability to communicate sensitively and effectively with clients and others;
- Ability to work under direction and to be flexible to adapt to varying workloads and caseload demands;
- Aptitude to work well in a team, as well as independently;
- Excellent time management and organisation skills;
- Attention to detail and skills in analysis, planning and problem solving;
- A current unrestricted drivers licence with a good driving history; and
- Familiarity and confidence in utilising computer applications and modern technology.

Applicants must be willing to travel regularly and must be physically fit to undertake the inherent requirements of the role. If successful you will be required to obtain satisfactory clearances as established by a Working With Children Check and a Criminal History Check.

To express your interest please send your CV and cover letter to: jobs@guidedogs.com.au
